Light Initiative includes more than 350 volunteers. They voluntarily record books for the benefit of the visually impaired people. They record books for the 9th and the 12th grades and university students. On the Facebook page they announce that they finished this book or this curriculum, and they use the YouTube channel to publish the recordings. These records are saved in mp3 format. Their services are absolutely free; i.e. the volunteer is not paid, and it doesn't cost the visually impaired person anything. Volunteers need very simple things. They use mobiles for recording and laptops to do the montage. No professional tools are needed. Light Initiative's new project is turning the Syrian curriculum into Braille.

In 2013, John Sweeney, a plumber from Ireland, started a Facebook page called Suspended Coffees. His message was simple: Buy a cup of coffee for a stranger. Suspended coffee is a tradition that comes from Naples, Italy, and dates back to the 20th century. When customers buy coffee, they also pay in advance for a cup to be given to somebody else; usually someone who otherwise couldn't afford it. This initiative was forgotten, but then it revived again in 2011. That's when "Suspended Coffee Day" started to be celebrated each December. It can be for the homeless person you pass by on the street, a stressed student in the middle of exams, a mother of children who can't afford coffee. If someone asks, then they're in need - no CV required.
