Hanan Al-Hroub was a poorly paid teacher in the West Bank. Then she won the $1 million Global Teacher Prize. The committee praised Mrs. Al-Hroub's "play and learn" method, which she still employs. Besides her clown outfit, she uses interesting teaching tools which she pays for with her own money. Her aim is to make the classroom a calm and fun place where her eight-year-old pupils can forget about the struggle of daily life. Parents often refuse the focus on play. But later they realise that her methods improve behaviour and results. Mrs. Al-Hroub plans to establish her own foundation to train other teachers to follow her approach. Her dream was to be a doctor but failing did not prevent her from being a special person.
