Read the following passage and answer the questions

1

Many years ago, there lived a king who was rich and strong, but he always felt ill and unhappy. One day, his doctor said to him "There is only one thing that will make you well and happy. You must wear the shoes of a man who never felt sad." The king left his palace and asked hundreds of men if they were always happy. They all said they were sometimes happy and sometimes unhappy. At last, he met a poor fisherman who said he was happy from dawn till night. "Give me your shoes quickly," said the king. The fisherman laughed "I'm sorry," he answered "I have never had a pair of shoes in my life".

Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions

2 A salt seller carried a salt bag on his donkey to the market. On the way, they had to cross a river. One day, the donkey tumbled down the river. The bag became too light to carry as the salt in it dissolved in the water. The donkey was happy and played the same trick every day. The salt seller wanted to teach it a lesson. The next day, he put a cotton bag on the donkey. Again it played the same trick. But the cotton became very heavy to carry. The donkey was very tired. After that, it did not play the trick and the seller was happy.

B) Reading Comprehension

Read the passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Kiwi is a famous kind of fruit, but have you ever heard of a bird called Kiwi? Kiwis are the national birds of New Zealand and this is the only place in the world you will find them, outside zoos. They are birds with small wings and no tails. Kiwis have very long beaks. They use them to find food. Kiwis eat worms, spiders, and small insects. Cats and dogs usually run after kiwis because they are so small and flightless. Kiwis have brown feathers like hair so they can hide into the ground. Unlike parrots and other pet birds, kiwis can't live with people. They bite when they feel danger.
