The ancient Egyptians made wonderful artifacts that we still adore today. Let's begin with the amazing mummies. The ancient Egyptians believed in life after death. They mummified the bodies of the dead people to make sure that they would be able to enjoy the afterlife. The Great Sphinx is one of the most famous statues in the world. It has the body of a lion and the head of a person. It represents power and wisdom. Other cool artifacts are the beautiful jewelry made of gold and silver. They were not only beautiful but also had special meanings. For example, the ancient Egyptians wore amulets with the image of a scarab to protect them and bring them good fortune. Studying these artifacts helps us understand the lives of the people who lived thousands of years ago.
