Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Japan is a group of islands in the south east of Asia. It is not a very big country but it has a large population. Tokyo is the capital city. The sea is important for the Japanese. They cultivate pearls in the warm water around the islands. They also grow rice and vegetables. Japan is mainly an industrial country. Some of the best products like radios, televisions, computers, cameras and cars come from Japan and they are famous all over the world. So, "Made in Japan" is a trustful label.

The Japanese are very polite and active people. They work hard. They even don't like holidays. They love flowers and they welcome their visitors warmly. Old Japanese usually wear traditional clothes called kimonos. The Japanese don't sit on chairs when they eat; they kneel on the floor. They don't use knives, forks or spoons. They use wooden chopsticks. Their favourite food is raw fish and rice. The Japanese writing is very strange. It has no alphabet as in Arabic or English. It has a system of pictures and their writing goes from top to bottom. Japan is a good model of a modern country.

It was the end of the final school term. The boys in grade 6 planned to hold a class party. First of all, they got a permission from the school principal. Then each boy contributed 2 KD. Ten boys volunteered to be in charge of food and drinks. These boys prepared iced-drinks, bought biscuits, cakes and sweets. Some of the mothers helped by frying meat and hamburger to make some sandwiches. Others prepared some cookies and pizzas. Every boy brought his own plate, glass, fork and spoon. At 4.00 p.m. on that day, all the boys met and re-arranged the furniture in the classroom. They reserved one section for food and drinks. Some boys organised games such as 'Treasure Hunt' and 'Musical Chairs' which everyone enjoyed.

After the games, they turned to the delicious food and drinks. Their teacher, who had been specially invited, gave away prizes to the winners of the games. Lastly, at 9.00p.m. they took photos and went home happily after cleaning up the classroom. They felt the class party was a good way to end the year.
