Unit 1

Write about the relationship between 2 friends

Saud and Ali , their relationship wasn't defined by grand gestures, but by the continuity of their presence in each other's lives . A bond forged over years of shared laughter, whispered secrets, and mutual support. They were each other's unwavering touchstone . They are lucky to have each other .

Write about your best friend

My best friend is Sarah . Our relationship wasn't defined by grand gestures, but by the continuity of our presence in each other's lives . A bond forged over years of shared laughter, whispered secrets, and mutual support. We were each other's unwavering touchstone . We are lucky to have each other .

Unit 2

Write about a successful person in your country

Majed Ahmed Abdullah

Majed Ahmed Abdullah is a Saudi Arabian former footballer who was born in Jeddah but moved to Riyadh with his family when he was very young. He is one of the best football strikers in the history of Saudi Arabia, having scored 72 goals with the Saudi Arabian national football team. Majed Ahmed Abdullah is the all-time top scorer of the Saudi Professional League.

Write about your goals and dreams

My greatest aspiration is to become a doctor. Becoming a doctor is not merely a job title, but a life-long covenant. My dream is to earn the knowledge and skill necessary to help patients. I am driven by the belief that a dedication to medicine is the ultimate goal in life , a dream I am fully prepared to work tirelessly to achieve.

Unit 3

Write about a development that will be completed by 2030

By 2030, the Vision Program will have made great progress in developing more ways for us to learn effectively. I think that in addition to supporting teachers and students even more with resources and training, we will also be able to learn from home via the use of computers. This will be helpful for people who live in remote areas or when a child is sick and cannot get to school. There will be online classes and perhaps we will have project materials delivered by drones!

Write about a modern invention

The smartphone is a revolutionary modern invention that acts as a powerful, pocket-sized computer integrating communication, internet, GPS, and various applications. It has transformed society by providing global access to information and services like online education and mobile banking, improving quality of life and fostering economic growth.

Unit 4

Write about your favorite movie

The Lion King is a coming-of-age film. It focuses on a young person's journey to adulthood, often both emotionally and physically. In these kinds of films there is usually a role model who helps teach the main character, and there is usually a test that the character must undergo. The Lion King is a good example of this kind of film .

Unit 5

Write about Advertising in schools

Although this semester our class has discussed the different types of advertising in the marketplace, one technique that was not discussed is that of advertising in schools. This idea is a growing technique that if conducted the right way, could perhaps benefit not only corporate organizations, but also schools and students. However, there are many critics, along with parents, that feel advertising in schools is a horrible idea and could only lead to harm.

Write about popular food in your country

Kabsa is a rice-based dish that is typically made with chicken or lamb, although some variations use fish or shrimp. The rice is flavored with a blend of aromatic spices such as cardamom, cinnamon, and cloves, and is often cooked with onions, tomatoes, and peppers. The meat is usually marinated in a mixture of spices and yogurt before being added to the rice. The dish is typically served with a side of salad or yogurt and is often garnished with fried onions and raisins.

Unit 6

Write about communication approaches

Communication is the essence of human interaction, allowing us to exchange ideas, emotions, and information. Through spoken language, gestures, and technology, we bridge distances and connect minds across cultures and borders. Effective communication fosters strong relationships, resolves conflicts, and promotes personal and professional growth. It empowers individuals to express themselves and be heard, while also being attentive and receptive to others.

Write about behavior and attitudes of people of different ages

Age fundamentally shapes interests of people through their life. Children may prefer toys and cartoons, teenagers could gravitate towards music and social media, while adults often engage with career-related pursuits or family-oriented activities. While it is evident that there are age-related trends in interests, it is misleading to assert that people of different ages always possess different interests.
