Sam walked into a cake shop, after he'd finished his work, to buy his daughter a birthday cake. It was about 4 o'clock and the store usually closes at five. So he should make up his mind quickly and decide what he should buy. Sam asked himself "Which one should I choose?" He began wandering in the shop watching the various kinds of cakes which were kept in the refrigerators around. The cakes looked very delicious and tasty so that it was difficult for Sam to choose.

Time was passing but in vain. Sam couldn't decide yet, when he heard the chef saying "Come on. Hurry up, please, we are about to close the store." "No, wait please, I should choose the most suitable and delicious cake." Sam said sorrowfully. Sam's eyes kept moving from one refrigerator to another, but all the options looked so good and he couldn't make a decision yet. Suddenly the chef in the shop asked Sam to leave immediately. Sam walked out of the shop empty-handed feeling depressed and frustrated; he ended up with nothing because he couldn't choose any.
