

Online learning has become an important thing in our life. It has some pros and some cons.

Firstly, online learning has some pros. It saves your time. Also, it can be more flexible. For example, you can study at any time and anywhere you want.

On the other hand, online learning has some cons. It needs a computer and access to the internet. For example, if you don't have the internet, you can't attend the class.

To sum up, Online learning has pros and cons. We should be wise and take the good sides.

Dear Mr / Mrs,

I am writing this letter to complain about the poor service that I had at your hotel / restaurant . I am very annoyed about what happened.

Firstly, the place was very dirty and there were flies everywhere. Secondly, there were a lot of stains on the chairs and they weren't comfortable. Moreover , the food was not good and I didn't like it. Also, the bathroom was not clean and I saw insects on the floor. Finally, I am so sorry to tell you that your staff were very rude and did not help me to solve my problem.

So, I demand a full-refund and a written apology or I will take further action . I am looking forward to hearing from you. If you want to call me, this is my number 666xxxx.

Yours faithfully,

Studying abroad
Have you ever thought about studying abroad? I think studying abroad is good for some reasons.

Firstly, studying abroad teaches you self-independence, because when you study abroad, you will do most of things by yourself.

Secondly, studying abroad let us know about the customs and traditions of other countries. For example you meet other people for different nationalities.

Thirdly, studying abroad gives you the chance to learn well. For example, many other countries have better universities than ours.

All in all, studying abroad is very good as it teaches us self-independence, other countries customs and traditions and good learning. I think we should study abroad.

Letter of complaint 11

Dear sir

I am writing to complain about I feel dissatisfied and I am obliged to complain as I found so many problems.

Firstly, the price was not suitable. When I searched prices on internet websites, I found that your prices are too high. Secondly, the employees in charge were so rude. When I tried to get information from one of them, he was no caring and went along without giving me the information I need. Thirdly, the quality which I expected was not very good.

So, I demand a full refund or I will be forced to take an action. I am looking forward to hearing from you in the near soon.

Yours faithfully,

Almost every student around the world prefers to have a good education .A good education is more than just learning from books .This could be the reason why some students prefer to study abroad. However, studying abroad has both advantages and disadvantages.

On the one hand, studying abroad has many advantages.Firstly, students build their character.They communicate with different people who have different religions and speak different languages. This will improve their social skills and their language skills too.Most of them become more independent as they depend on themselves in many situations.Another advantage of studying abroad is that students become more open- minded and learn about new ideas. They meet people from different cultures and different points of view.They will bring back everything they have learned to their country, so the whole country will benefit.

On the other hand, studying abroad has some disadvantages.To begin with, some students feel lonely when they are away from their families.In addition, some students move away from original values.For example, some students take up smoking or change the way they dress.Finally, studying abroad can cost a lot more than it would be in your home country.

To sum up , there are both advantages and disadvantages of studying abroad.It can build the students character and they identify new language,skills and culture.However,it could change their morals and it costs a lot of money.

It is clear that living in the city is like a coin with two faces and it is a double edged weapon. Some people are with it, while others are against it. Is it good to live in the city?

On the one hand, there are many pros of living in the city. Firstly, there are many public services and facilities in the city. For example, you can find a variety of schools, hospitals, hotels, restaurants and public transport. Secondly, there are a lot of entertainment as you can find cinemas, amusement parks and many malls for shopping.

On the other hand, there are many cons of living in the city. First of all, there is a lot of noise in the cities. For example, you can't find a place that doesn't have horns and sirens. Also, there is a lot of pollution in the cities as you can smell car exhausts everywhere which may damage your lungs.

All in all, living in the city has some advantages and disadvantages. We should be more wise to take good sides and leave bad sides.

Online learning has become an important thing in our life. It has some pros and some cons.

To sum up, Online learning has pros and cons. We should be wise and take the good sides.

It is clear that online learning is a very important issue. It is like a coin with two faces and it is a double edged weapon. Some people think that it is good because it has many pros , other people think that it is bad because it has some cons. In this essay, I will present both sides.

On the one hand, online learning has some advantages. For example, it may save our time and it can be more flexible because students can attend classes and courses anywhere with a computer and access to the internet. In addition, students don't have to sit for long periods of time, they can pause the lesson when they need to eat something or need to go to the bathroom or other things. Also, they have the chance to choose from different lessons and courses and they can watch the lessons or the courses several times.

On the other hand, online learning has some disadvantages. For example, some people may not have access to a computer and the internet connection may be disconnected suddenly because of many reasons such as blackouts. Moreover, children and people with disabilities may need more personal education and there is no interaction between the teachers and the students and this problem affects the learning process badly. Also, online learning may create a sense of isolation and it requires self discipline.

All in all , online learning has some advantages and disadvantages. The pros outweigh the cons. I think that we should consider the two sides of the argument. Also, we should be more wise to take

~~عنوان~~ <Online shopping> Shopping online

Have you ever tried shopping online. No doubt that shopping online is the top of our interests these days. It is too much debated. Shopping online has some pros and cons.

On the one hand, there are some pros of shopping online. Firstly, it saves time and effort because you don't have to go shopping. You can shop while you are at home. Also, everything is available online. For example, many items aren't available in malls, however you can get them online.

On the other hand, there are some cons of shopping online. First of all, shopping online is not always secure. I mean there are frauds in online shopping. So, it is important for e-marketers and retailers to pay attention to this issue. Moreover, the goods which you order may not be as you want. For example, the items may be small or big or different in colors.

All in all, shopping online has some pros and cons. In my opinion, the pros outweigh the cons. But, I advise everyone to be careful during dealing with it.
