Light Initiative started with two people and now it includes more than 350 volunteers. They voluntarily record school and college books for the benefit of the visually impaired people. They started recording the books of the 9th and the 12th grades; they also record university books and references. Their aim is to meet the visually impaired people's actual needs whatever they are.

Usually, the visually impaired person who has the desire to study a curriculum or a reference, contacts the initiative administration and provides them with the books needed. Then, the book is divided into tasks for a number of volunteers to record them.

They use a Facebook page and a YouTube channel. On the Facebook page, they announce that they finished this book or this curriculum, and they use the YouTube channel to publish the recordings. These records are saved in mp3 format.

Their services are absolutely free; i.e. the volunteer is not paid, and it doesn't cost the visually impaired person anything. Anyone with a network can have access to their records.

Volunteers need very simple things. They use mobiles for recording and laptops to do the montage. No professional tools are needed.

Light Initiative's new project is turning the Syrian curriculum into Braille. This will help Syrian students who suffer from sight problems.

On March 27, 2013, John Sweeney, a plumber from Ireland, started a Facebook page called Suspended Coffees. His message was simple: Buy a cup of coffee for a stranger, because an act of kindness can change a life and make a difference. Eight hours later, the page had attracted more than 20,000 likes. Suspended coffee is a tradition that comes from Naples, Italy, and dates back to the 20th century. When customers buy coffee, they also pay in advance for a cup to be given to somebody else; usually someone who otherwise couldn't afford it. This initiative was forgotten, but then it revived again in 2011. That's when "Suspended Coffee Day" started to be celebrated each December.

You can buy it for anyone in need. It can be for the homeless person you pass by every day on the street, a stressed student in the middle of exams, a mother of children who can't afford coffee. It may be a well-dressed man whom you may not think from his appearance that he's in need but he may be in his third month of job hunting. It's not up to us to judge – if someone asks, then they're in need - no CV required.

Think of a personal initiative that you can launch to help your community.

Last week, my friends and I started a small project to help our community. We cleaned the local park near our houses. We picked up plastic bottles, papers, and trash. Then, we planted many beautiful flowers. Now, the park is clean and safe. This simple work made everyone happy.

في الأسبوع الماضي، بدأت أنا وأصدقائي مشروعاً صغيراً لمساعدة مجتمعنا. قمنا بتنظيف الحديقة المحلية القريبة من منازلنا. قمنا بجمع الزجاجات البلاستيكية والأوراق والقمامة. ثم زرعنا الكثير من الزهور الجميلة. الآن، الحديقة نظيفة وآمنة. هذا العمل البسيط جعل الجميع سعيداً.

Ahmed is your neighbour. He has a problem with his legs, so he cannot walk. You always see him watching you sadly playing with your friends. Think of an idea to help him and write the steps you will follow to solve his problem.

I feel sorry for Ahmad because he cannot walk. I have a plan to help him feel better . In the afternoon, I will take him to the cinema and we will visit the zoo to see animals. Next week we will eat some sweets and ice cream. After that we will play chess and watch cartoons.

أشعر بالأسف على أحمد لأنه لا يستطيع المشي. لدي خطة لمساعدته على الشعور بتحسن. بعد الظهر سنذهب الى السينما وسوف نزور حديقة الحيوانات لمشاهدة الحيوانات. سنتناول بعض الحلويات والآيس كريم الأسبوع المقبل. بعد ذلك سنلعب الشطرنج ونشاهد الرسوم المتحركة.
